

1 us individually.

2 I hope that you have GP-4 before you, and will 3 take a look at it.

4 This provision is either an enforceable mandate
5 or a horatory statement which cannot compare to the equal
6 opportunity item which was deleted from the education section
7 of general provisions.

8 I fear, however, that this is in fact a mandate
9 and a constitutional guarantee while defying logical inter-
10 pretation apparently seeks to insure a money-back guarantee
11 to everyone upon a suggestion of an impropriety. However 12 unfounded this suggestion may be, I ask you to consider 13 how the legislature can pass a law that will protect and 14 educate all of the citizens against alleged harmful and 15 unfair business practices.

16 I ask you to consider how the word "protection" 17 is going to be defined in the content of this section, and 18 how far the word "education" purports to be extended.

19 No one can argue that this is not legislation.
20 I realize that it is extremely tempting to include this and 21 other matters in the Constitution, but doesn't our duty to
